

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20505
OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

12 March 1976

MEMORANDUM FOR ALL CIA EMPLOYEES

As Director of Central Intelligence I am determined that the Central Intelligence Agency conduct its activities in strict adherence to its legislative charter, to applicable laws, Executive Orders, and appropriate National Security Council Directives. Only by such adherence both to the spirit and letter of the law can the Agency continue to serve the people of the United States by properly carrying out its mission to contribute to the national security.

A CIA regulation requires that any employee who has knowledge of past, current, or proposed CIA activities that might be construed to be illegal, improper, questionable, or outside CIA's legislative charter, or who believes that he or she has received instructions that in any way appear illegal, improper, questionable, or outside CIA's legislative charter, inform the Director or Inspector General immediately.

I expect each employee to comply with the regulation. You may report any information relating to these matters directly to me or to the Inspector General at any time.
